ABOUT US

The Italian Cultural Institute in Washington, DC is part of a network of 90 Italian government offices established throughout the world to promote Italian culture. Please consider becoming a “Friend of the Istituto”, to have the pleasure of participating as a cherished guest at events throughout the year as detailed in our monthly program.

WHAT WE DO

Through a variety of events and programs held at the Institute and other Washington area locations, we seek to share information about historical and contemporary aspects of Italian culture and society. Among our activities are: lectures, exhibits, musical programs, film series, and academic exchanges. Unless specifically noted, all our events are conducted in English.

HOW WE DO IT

Promoting Italian culture in the Washington, DC area also involves learning about American culture and fostering cultural exchanges. In order to reach the widest possible audience, the Institute regularly joins with local cultural and academic institutions in co-sponsoring programs of mutual interest.
